St. James parishioner, Barbara Mangi is no stranger to adversity, pain, and loss in her life. But nothing had even remotely prepared her for the murder of her twenty-five-year-old daughter in August 2007. Barbara will tell the story of her flawed, human journey as she not only fights to heal herself, but also struggles to keep her marriage together. Come listen as she shares the life-giving lessons she learned along her journey of healing and forgiveness.
